

The San Diego Press Club, the National Press Club, and the School of Journalism and Media Studies at SDSU present an important forum:

The First Amendment, Freedom of the Press and the Future of Journalism

In association with the San Diego chapters of the Society of Professional Journalists, Public Relations Society of America, National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, the Advertising Club and SDSU's Friends of Journalism Alumni Chapter

TUESDAY, November 18

5:30 P.M. – 7:30 P.M.

San Diego State University

Moderator Gil Klein of the National Press Club will engage our distinguished panel in a spirited discussion of these critical issues. Confirmed panelists include:

- Diane Borden, Director, School of Journalism and Media Studies, SDSU
- J.W. August, Managing Editor, KGTV 10 News
- Scott Lewis, co-Executive Editor, Voice of San Diego.com
- Guylyn Cummins, partner, Entertainment and Media Practice Group, Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton, LLP
- Reo Carr, Associate Publisher, San Diego Business Journal

Registration begins at 5:30 pm at the Arts and Letters Building followed by the program at 6:00 pm. Parking in adjacent parking structure #8 on Aztec Circle Drive is free. Event tickets are $10 for communications professionals and the public. Students may attend free. RSVP to the San Diego Press Club online at www.sdpressclub.org

"We are very pleased to be jointly celebrating the National Press Club's 100th Anniversary and the San Diego Press Club's 35th Anniversary. In a time of increased pressure on all forms of media, this discussion of the First Amendment will be an appropriate kickoff to our year-long analysis of the role of a free press in today's society. I invite all of our members and other interested parties to join in this important introspection."

Chuck Fox, San Diego Press Club President